Mile High and Worldwide—International Business Education

PEDAGOGICAL CALL FOR
WORKSHOPS, SEMINARS, AND PRESENTATIONS

International relations are based on developing skills where the sky is the limit and students are able function in multi-cultural societies in a shrinking worldwide climate. Topics for workshops, seminars, and presentations should address how Business Education programs provide training to meet future of international demands.

Possible workshop, seminar, and presentation topics might cover:

- Communicating in an international/multi-cultural business environment
- Developing leadership
- Developing skills for international business
- Integrating international issues into curriculum
- Making worldwide connections
- New heights for professional education
- Preparing faculty and students for international experiences
- Preparing for prosperity with business education
- Preparing students for new heights
- Professionalism and ethics
- Providing faculty and students with international learning opportunities
- Recruiting students
- Skill development for international success
- Technology and its implications for the future

KEYWORDS:

Curriculum design	Leadership	Skill development
Ethics	Multi-cultural education	Technology
Interpersonal skills	Professionalism	Worldwide relationships

Any SIEC member may submit a proposal for a workshop, seminar or a presentation to your country's Pedagogical Committee member or to Leszek Preisner, PedCom-Chair (e-mail: preisner@zarz.agh.edu.pl) by January 15, 2012. Please use the PedCom-Submission Form which is available at www.siec-isbe.org.

The committee reviews the presentation submissions and selects those for inclusion in the PedCom program 2012. Notification of decision will be made by February 15, 2012. If you need more information, don't hesitate to contact your national PedCom member or Leszek Preisner, PedCom-Chair. Special consideration will be given to new members or those who have not previously presented at a SIEC conference.

All Presenters

- must be members of SIEC-ISBE in order to present at the conference. If the presenter's home country has a SIEC-ISBE chapter, he/she must join that national chapter. If the presenter is from a country without a national chapter, membership information is available at www.siec-isbe.org.
- must register for the entire conference. If membership and registration are not completed by May 30, 2012, you will be removed from the 2012 PedCom Program.
- must provide their own laptop if a computer is required. Projectors will be available in the conference rooms.

The goal of the Pedagogical Committee is to ensure that the Workshops, Seminars and Presentations are designed to exchange experiences and learn from one another.
